

National Conference of Unit Valuation States

PUBLIC UTILITY VALUATION CONFERENCE

42nd NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF
UNIT VALUATION STATES

Santa Fe, New Mexico

October 20 - 22, 2026

The 42nd National Conference of Unit Valuation States will be conducted at the Hyatt Place Santa Fe, New Mexico from October 20 - 22, 2026.

NCUVS is a self-sustaining organization, and membership is restricted to state government employees in the public utility sector, either in the appraisal aspect or that of legal representation. It is of particular benefit to governmental employees involved in either the valuation, administration, rule-making, or legal process of public utility companies for ad valorem purposes. Participants from 41 states have attended.

This is an outstanding appraisal conference like none other. Participating states utilize the forum to discuss current events in the public utility property valuation field. Litigation issues are reviewed by the assembly and are discussed in detail by the state agency legal sections and attorney general staff.

Founded in 1984, NCUVS purpose has focused on the unit valuation methodology for centrally valuing public utility properties. It also presents other appraisal approaches that may impact centrally assessed properties.

The agenda contains informative, timely subjects relevant to the public utility appraiser:

- appraisal methodology
- assessment administration
- policymaking, rules and regulation
- state legislative changes
- litigation updates
- upcoming training opportunities
- individual state reports given by conference participants
- other appraisal approaches that may impact centrally assessed properties

The conference registration fee is $250.00 per person.
